The Summer Digital Arts Camps for Kids

No experience necessary, just a desire to have fun!
 Ages 7 to 15

LFCC Workforce Solutions has partnered again with Black Rocket Productions to bring back the popular Digital Arts Camps. Camps are under the creative direction of Bill Zengel, Black Rocket Productions, who has two decades of award winning work as a writer and producer in advertising, television and more. Richard Ginn, who won Teacher of the Year at US News and World Report's #7 High School in the United States, and is also an experienced administrator, partners with Bill to ensure your child's experience is of the highest level.

From beginner to advanced and everything in between, there's a place at LFCC's Digital Arts Camps for your child. Camps run weekly throughout the summer from June 27 to August 19, 2011 and are designed for kids age 7 to 15. Each camp is priced at $165. Scholarships are available. Call 540-868-7021 for details. Student created projects will be available on a password protected website to share with family and friends. Software and games are only PC compatible (not MAC).
